Public notice.

It will be seen by Dr. John Beckwith's letter, dated June 1st, 1845, that he has discontinued all agencies on commission for the sale of his (Beckwith's) anti-dyspeptic pills, and has established one principal office, which is at the Columbian College, No. 132 North Second street, Philadelphia, where the public are recommended to apply for the genuthe pills.

Protection against counterfeits.

Dr. Beckwith, proprietor of "Beckwith's antidyspeptic pills," having suffered great loss, as well as those who have been in the practice of using his pills being disappointed and their health injured:

It will be seen by Dr. Beckwith's letter of June 1, 1845, that he has adopted the only safe plan for himself and the public against these miscreants, by having placed the sale of his medicine in the hands of one special agent, where every one who wishes to be supplied with the genuine article must apply.

Dr. T. W. Dyott & Sons, of the Columbian College, No. 132 North Second street, Philadelphia, are the only persons appointed to supply the above pills in quantity, as no counterfeit article is permitted in their establishment. Dealers and the public will be safe in supplying themselves as above.

Wright's Indian vegetable pills counterfeited.

The proprietor of Wright's Indian vegetable pills has discovered that his pills are counterfeited and extensively circulated through the country by persons uneuthorized by him.

Dealers in the above pills are therefore respectfully informed that Dr. T. W. Dyott & Sons, of the Columbian College, No. 132 North Second street, Philadelphia, are the only persons authorized by me to sell my pills, in quantity, at the same prices as myself.
